THE COUNT AND THE WEDDING GUEST

PRE-READING ACTIVITY 1: FOCUS ON SPECIFIC LANGUAGE FEATURES

“The Count and the Wedding Guest” is a story about Mr. Andy Donovan and Miss Maggie Conway. In the story, both of these characters go through a number of different emotions and feelings. This activity will help you to learn some words related to emotions.

PART 1: CATEGORIZE THE WORDS

Directions:

1. The table below contains a list of words related to emotions and feelings along with the definitions. Learn the words and definitions.

Word	Definition
death (p. 68)	The end of life; the time when someone or something dies
laugh (p. 68)	To show that you are happy or that you think something is funny by smiling and making a sound from your throat
sadness (p. 68)	Not happy; feeling or showing grief or unhappiness
afraid (p. 69)	Feeling fear; nervous or worried that something will happen smile (p. 69)	To make the corners of your mouth turn up in an expression that shows happiness, amusement, pleasure, affection, etc.
happy (p. 69)	Feeling pleasure and enjoyment because of your life, situation
tear (p. 71)	A drop of liquid that comes from your eyes especially when you cry
love (p. 71)	A feeling of strong or constant affection for a person
cry (p. 71)	To produce tears from your eyes often while making loud sounds because of pain, sorrow, or other strong emotions

2. In the Word Classes Defined table below, examine three word classes (verbs, nouns, and adjectives) and their definitions.

Word Classes Defined

Word Class	Definition
Verb (V.)	A word (such as think, eat, read) that is usually one of the main parts of a sentence and that expresses an action, an occurrence, or a state of being
Noun (N.)	A word (such as man, house, restaurant) that is the name of something (such as a person, animal, place, thing, quality, idea or action) and is typically used in a sentence as subject or object of a verb
Adjective (Adj.)	A word (such as big, small, or fast) that describes a noun or a pronoun
Pronoun (P.)	A word such as I, he, she, you, it, we or they that is used instead of a noun or noun phrase.

3. Write the words from the first table in the correct column of the Word Class Table. Some words can be placed into two word classes. An example is provided.

Word Classes Table

WHILE-READING ACTIVITY 2: SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

“The Count and the Wedding Guest” tells the story of how Mr. Andy Donovan meets a new guest, Miss Maggie Conway, at dinner in a rooming house on Second Avenue. As you read the story, put the major events in the order in which they occur in the story.

Directions:

1. As you read the story, focus on the main events.
2. In the bank boxes in the table, write down the events in the order in which they occur in the story. Some events have been completed for you.

Order of events	Events from the Story
1	Mr. Andy Donovan meets a new guest, a young lady, Miss Maggie Conway.
	Two weeks later, Andy sees Maggie again wearing all black.
	Maggie tells Andy the real story about the Count who was never real.
	Maggie receives a letter from Italy saying that Fernando has been killed.
5	After Maggie’s father finally agrees to the marriage, Fernando goes to Italy to prepare for the wedding.
	Maggie plans to marry Count Fernando Mazzini, but her father is against it.
	Maggie shows Andy the picture of Fernando, and Andy decides to take Fernando’s place in Maggie’s heart.
8	After a month, Andy and Maggie decide to get married.
	Andy invites Maggie for a walk, and Maggie tells Andy her sad story.
	A week later, Andy has a sad face all day because he cannot invite Big Mike Sullivan to his wedding for a reason he won’t tell.
	After Maggie tells the truth, Andy is happy again and ready to get married.
